Making Love Gods Way

I can see that some of you are already blushing just because you read the title of our topic today. Yes for most of us this is a no go zone, and I think that's why most of us don't have any Biblical found resources about this subject. Most of us got our resources from the world, because the church doesn't go there, it's to evil to say even the word making Love. But this great gift the Lord gave to a husband and wife in marriage, as a blessing for both parties. What God intended as pure and holy the enemy took it and made it a cinematic experience were two people are having sex and have a audience watching in. This was surely never Gods intention, the first reason He gave sex was to get Godly offspring and second was for a man and women(in covenant marriage) to enjoy it together.

May your fountain be blessed, and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth. A loving doe, a graceful deer - may her breasts satisfy you always, may you ever be captivated by her love. Why be captivated, my son by an adulteress? Why embrace the bosom of another man's wife?" [Proverbs 5:18-20]

"Drink water from your own cistern, running water from your own well. Should your springs overflow in the streets, your streams of water in the public squares? Let them be yours alone, never to be shared with strangers. May your fountain be blessed, and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth. A loving doe, a graceful deer - may her breasts satisfy you always, may you ever be captivated by her love. Why be captivated, my son, by an adulteress? Why embrace the bosom of another man's wife?"

For a man's ways are in full view of the Lord, and he examines all his paths. The evil deeds of a wicked man ensnare him; the cords of his sin hold him fast. He will die for lack of discipline, led astray by his own great folly." [Proverbs 5:15-23]

This passage compares the wife to a cistern, well, and fountain which is a source of pleasure to the man. Sexual pleasure is part of God's purpose for sex in marriage as can be seen in this passage. Such experience is designed for the commitment and trust of marriage. Outside of marriage sex ultimately leads to guilt and loss of self-respect.

Following are excerpts from the book Song of Songs. Although the language is rather foreign to our culture, the basic message is clear that physical love between a man and wife is scriptural. The husband is "Lover" and the wife is "Beloved". The brackets before each quote show who is speaking.

"[Beloved] Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest is my lover among the young men. I delight to sit in his shade and his fruit is sweet to my taste. He has taken me to the banquet hall, and his banner over me is love. Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples, for I am faint with love. His left arm is under my head, and his right arm embraces me. Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires." [Song of Songs 2:3-7]

"[Lover] How beautiful you are, my darling! Oh, how beautiful! Your eyes behind your veil are doves. Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from Mount Gilead. Your teeth are like a flock of sheep just shorn, coming up from the washing. Each has its twin; not one of them is alone. Your lips are like a scarlet ribbon; your mouth is lovely. Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate. Your neck is like a tower of David. built with elegance; on it hang a thousand shields, all of them shields of warriors. Your two breasts are like two fawns, like twin fawns of a gazelle that browse among the lilies. Until the day breaks and the shadows flee, I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of incense. All beautiful you are my darling; there is no flaw in you." [Song of Songs 4:1-7]

"[Beloved] My lover is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand. His head is purest gold; his hair is wavy and black as a raven. His eyes are like doves by the water streams, washed in milk, mounted like jewels. His cheeks are like beds of spice yielding perfume. His lips are like lilies dripping with myrrh. His arms are rods of gold set with chrysolite. His body is like polished ivory decorated with sapphires. His legs are pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold. His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as its cedars. His mouth is sweetness itself; he is altogether lovely. This is my lover, this my friend..." [Song of Songs 5:10-16]

"[Lover] You are beautiful, my darling, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, majestic as troops with banners. Turn your eyes from me; they overwhelm me. Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from Gilead. Your teeth are like a flock of sheep coming up from the washing. Each has its twin, not one of them is alone. Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate. Sixty queens there may be, and eighty concubines, and virgins beyond number; but my dove, my perfect one, is unique, the only daughter of her mother, the favorite of the one who bore her. The maidens saw her and called her blessed; the queens and concubines praised her." [Song of Songs 6:4-9]

"[Lover] Your stature is like that of the palm, and your breasts like clusters of fruit. I said, "I will climb the palm tree; I will take hold of its fruit." May your breasts be like the clusters of the vine, the fragrance of your breath like apples, and your mouth like the best wine. [Beloved] May the wine go straight to my lover, flowing gently over lips and teeth. I belong to my lover, and his desire is for me." [Song of Songs 7:7-10]

"[Beloved] I am a wall and my breasts are like towers. Thus I have become in his eyes like one bringing contentment." [Song of Songs 8:10] [Dedicated love between marriage partners should bring fulfillment and contentment. The end result of shared love is contentment.]

Nowadays it seems that we don't know what love making is really all about, what did God want us to experience? Most of us see that you need lust to be able to make love to your husband or wife. Many church leaders and counsellors will tell couples who are struggling in the bedroom that they must get some porn movies and toys etc, to rekindle the love in the bedroom. I have one question? Didn't Jesus say that the marriage bed must be kept Holy, didn't He say that strife to be Holy because I'm Holy. Then why are we listening to the solutions of the world ,why are we looking for solutions in the natural if we are to look for it in the spiritual.

"...The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body...Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ himself? Shall I then take the members of Christ and unite them with a prostitute? Never! Do you not know that he who unites himself with a prostitute is one with her in body? For it is said 'the two will become one flesh' ..." [I Corinthians 6:13-16] [When you have sex with someone, you become one.]

Most problems couples experience with intimacy usually got it roots in the emotional, intellectual and spiritual. Usually the physical is just a tendency from the spiritual.

Love making in the bedroom can be a very good tool to show a couple where problems are or where did communication between them get broken down. Marriage between a man and woman is in parallel with God and Us. The same way we need to spend good quality time with God, the also need to spend good quality time with our spouses.

Lovemaking isn't lust, it doesn't even involve lust or porn, it involve two people who made a choice to spend there life's together and giving each other to the other, putting the one s needs before the other, enjoying each other in love and unity.

Lust is like bacteria if it gets in to your relationship it can suck the life out of any marriage. I know about many men who dragged pornographic addiction into their marriage and it destroyed them both. Women are made to be loved by their husbands, and men are made to love their wife's as they love themselves.

I heard a beautiful Illustration once:

Like a flower that blooms in the sunshine. I need to feel your love inside of me

When we commit ourself to God and we spend the time in His sunshine both man and women will start to bloom in His love and the rays of Gods Love will kill any bacterial lust. His love will rekindle any lost passion, and will reignite any fire what has become a suffocating smoke. Grow closer to God and you will grow closer to your husband or wife.

Be strong detest lust as God detest lust, asked God to give you His eyes looking at men or women, remember being Holy includes all members of your body , especially your eyes and thoughts.

Lets start running this race for Jesus, seeing how far we can get away from that line of sin and asking God to show us His great design of love making and not the worlds perverse image of it.
