All for love

Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it.

▣ Song of Solomon 8:7

Have you ever loved someone that you would give everything for?

Love is not a feeling, it's an ability.

▣ Dan in Real Life

Love intrigued me so much that I can't simply stop writing about it. We see love in nature, were a little lamb is born the mother will do anything in her power to protect the little one. The love between a brother and a sister, the love between mother and daughter, the love between husband and wife, but the greatest love of all is the Love between God and us.

He is the sources off all the Love in this world, He is over and underneath. He is inside and outside, He fills the air with His lovely aroma of sweetness and harmony, who can fathom the greatness of His Love? God is Love , Love is He ,His love will never end , His Love has no boundaries , nothing in this world can stand against His Love, so the point I want to make is that He is Love.

He can and will fill your heart with His Love, if you only give Him a chance, He will learn you how to love the way He loves us ,Maybe you loved your wife out of lust or you loved someone in your families just because you can get something out of the relationship, well Your Lord God can take away that Lust and wrong love motives and replace it with His love a love what is never-ending , a love that hopes all things , a love that can endure all things , a love that can stand up against the test of time , do you know what I'm talking about?

Well I thought I knew what love was before my marriage problems , but I know now that I didn't have any clue , but now I thank God that He is busy building a love in me , what I have never experienced for any other human being on this planet , His developing His love in my heart for my spouse. I love my wife now more than I ever loved anyone else ever before , the love I have for her is indescribable, its un imaginable, its something deeper than feelings , something deeper than physical affection , something only God can plant in our hearts. The love Christ have for us as His Bride.

I found the one whom my soul loves.

This is my beloved and this is my friend.

▣ Song of Solomon 5:16

Dear reader if your married , please go back to that moment of truth when you said I DO, doesn't matter if your marriage is great or if its struggling, please remember that choice you made , you love that person, you vowed that you will stay with Him or Her forever , for better or for worse , in sickness or in health , richer or poorer , UNTIL Death do us apart. Love conquers All , love will break any dividing wall , love can and will soften any stone heart , love always give great hopes.

If you not married but got that special someone in your life , honour them , and start enjoying every moment with them. The greatest Gift God could give us is His Love. Love can penetrate any darkness and will cast out any darkness. The darkness cant stand up against Love , Love covers all.

There is no fear in love; for perfect love casteth out fear

Lets go out and show the world how to love.

Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling.
