

Step 9

Written by

Sunday, 10 January 2010 19:52 - Last Updated Wednesday, 13 January 2010 14:17

Step 9

Summary

2 Corinthians 2:10

But one whom you forgive anything, I forgive also; for indeed what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did it for your sakes in the presence of Christ

1 John 4:7

Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.

All of the above steps can be summed up in three words and that is unconditional Love and Forgiveness. Many people will tell you that you deserve someone better as your husband or wife who had abandoned you, someone who would appreciate you more, they can be right by saying that, but did we deserve Jesus dying on the cross for us? No we didn't, so Jesus expect from us as husbands and wife's to love our wives or husbands the same way God loves us, by giving His son for us so we can live today in total freedom from sin.

Asked God to show you how to love your husband or wife in a deeper level and Forgive them the same way God has forgiven us, only God can build His unconditional love into your heart and only you can choose to forgive your husband or wife. See this time while you're standing for your marriage restoration and waiting for the return of your husband or wife as a healing period for you both. Lord will bring them back on His timing so don't let time be your enemy. Use this time of solitude to spend more time with God and grow spiritually. All you have to do is STAND AND ENDURE the Lord will do the rest, the battle is not yours but Gods.

Step 9

Written by

Sunday, 10 January 2010 19:52 - Last Updated Wednesday, 13 January 2010 14:17

2 Chronicles 20:15 (New International Version)

'Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. For the battle is not yours, but God's.

Stand strong

Click here to see some marriages restored through God