

What is Church?

Written by

Tuesday, 26 July 2011 07:10 - Last Updated Tuesday, 26 July 2011 07:40

What is the Church?

{youtube}-Ha6AC7WEwE{/youtube}

What is the church? Is the church a building? Is it the place where believers gather to worship, is it a Denomination? Seems like systems are ruling most of our churches? Or is the church the people—the believers who follow Christ? How we understand and perceive the church is quite important in determining how we live out our faith. Can this be the beginning of something new but old? Are house churches the future church? Me and my team went to the streets to find out, is this the Lord are speaking to so many Christians hearts really happening. We asked the questions. Please watch and see what we found.

The founder of the "home church" movement in England, Canon Ernest Southcott, said it best:

"The holiest moment of the church service is the moment when God's people—strengthened by preaching and sacrament—go out of the church door into the world to be the church. We don't go to church; we are the church."

The church, therefore, is not a place. It's not the building, it's not the location, and it's not the

What is Church?

Written by

Tuesday, 26 July 2011 07:10 - Last Updated Tuesday, 26 July 2011 07:40

denomination. We—God's people who are in Christ Jesus—are the church.

<http://christianity.about.com/od/churchandcommunity/a/thechurch.htm>