breakthrough...My husband has been in bondage to prescription drugs for 20 + years of our 31 + year marriage. Before that he was in bondage to pornography, moreover we were not living in full surrender to the Lord, we held back just enough of ourselves to feel in control. It wasn't until May 2009 that God got all of me and He is still working on us both but I see now He has more of my husband than ever before. We have been reconciled since Thanksgiving Day 2010! Saved from divorce and affair, delivered from depression, which I we both had a bondage too. God is moving in an amazing way in our family. He wants us all healed and whole and is faithful to finish what He has started!! Thank you for this encouraging site...The enemy wants our families destroyed but God already has the victory, we ned but walk it out!!!! Bless you for what you are doing, encouraging and role modeling a more excellent way!, Love in Christ, Renee and Greg Hart
